Amir's Blue Elephant

A woman's journey into the lives of Europe's refugees.

By Melissa Hekkers

Hekkers recounts her footsteps as she joins the journey of thousands of refugees seeking safety in Europe. Pushing the boundaries of creative non-fiction, Hekkers recreates the moments that marked her the most, whilst volunteering in refugee camps in Lesvos, Greece and during her ongoing involvement with the refugee community in Cyprus. Told through the eyes of a woman struggling to understand the realities asylum seekers are thrown into, this is the story of people fighting for the fragile right to freedom and liberty, the right to life itself.

I am Cyprus

25 stories of the migrant and refugee experience in Cyprus.

By Annetta Benzar

What is a Cypriot? Too often the story told of Cyprus makes the island nation seem dully monocultural, or bicultural at best. Yet the life stories Annetta Benzar has collected and retold here celebrate a country that is full of diversity, and in which there is a tale from a different part of the world around every corner.

Y2.200K

A chronicle

Words By Dimis Michaelides

Images By Umit Inatci

Y2.200K offers a very unique twist to an age-old question: can humanity survive its infancy and mature or will our violent nature take over?

Dimis Michaelides' text creates a dystopic utopia which masterfully blends two incompatible ideas: peace through repression and violence! Umit Inatci's artwork is not only beautiful to look at but it has an almost magical allure that draws you in with forms, colors and symbols, looking for hidden messages!
